You literally advocate for people other than their parents talking to kindergarteners about sex.

It's creepy.

 Senator Scott Wiener  @Scott_Wiener · Nov 26

We need to be clear that none of this is new. As long as LGBTQ people have existed in the U.S., bigots have lied & said we're coming for your kids, either as pedophiles to have sex with them or otherwise to harm them. The only thing new is they're now using the word "groomer."

The media supported censorship!

Andrew Surabian @Surabeees · 2h
REMINDER. We caught Twitter red handed secretly targeting conservative accounts with shadow bans all the way back in 2018. They of course falsely claimed it was a "glitch" & without even an ounce of skepticism, the corporate med a accepted that obvious lie as fact.
CC @eionmusk

Twitter appears to be "shadow-banning" several conservative leaders. In other words, their accounts don't show up when users search for them in the dropdown bar.

Those affected include Republican National Committee Chairwoman Ronna McDaniel and Donald Trump Jr. spokesperson Andrew Surabian, as well as the verified accounts of Reps. Mark Meadows (R-N.C.), Jim Jordan (R-Ohio), Devin Nunes (R-Calif.), and Matt Gaetz (R-Fla.), according to Vice News. Twitter users can still find their profiles with a manual search, but the accounts don't auto-populate in the search bar.

Something similar has happened to white nationalists such as Richard Spencer and right-wing trolls such as Mike Cernovich, Gizmodo reports. But other controversial figures on the far right, including Infowars founder Alex Jones and Unite the Right organizer Jason Kessler, still show up in the dropdown search bar.

There does not appear to be a comparable crackdown on the left, says Vice:

McDaniel's counterpart, Democratic Party chair Tom Perez, and liberal members of Congress—including Reps. Maxine Waters, Joe Kennedy III, Keith Ellison, and Mark Pocan—all continue to appear in drop-down search results. Not a single member of the 78-person Progressive Caucus faces the same in Twitter's search.

Just because Kurti is breaking those agreements does not give Serbia an excuse to stop complying with their commitments.

We need U.S. leadership right now!

I lost a lot of Kosovo awareness after I left in 2001. I supervised the first free election in their history. We joked they were choosing which thieves would rob them. US govt heavily favored the moderates. But ppl stood in line 12 hrs to vote. Strict vote security. Better than U.S.

The Democrats have a growing murder / attempted murder problem. I wonder if the media will ever notice

They are. They're enabling, encouraging and promoting left wing extremism,

The capital punishment for this guy would be a good start

Come on. They're encouraging it as much as they can.

They won't do crap, they spend too much time trying to figure out ways to try to bring down Trump. They truly do not care for the American people

Like what? The department of Justice is the far left extremist.

So we all agree that violence is bad? Great. For a while there, I saw a lot of folks on the right acting like January 6th wasn't a big deal. At least we can mostly all agree that violence isn't the answer

So we all agree that violence is bad? Great. For a while there, I saw a lot of folks on the right acting like January 6th wasn't a big deal. At least we can mostly all agree that violence isn't the answer

This sounds like smoke and mirrors....

The U.S. government used its power to silence dissent - this is such a scandal.

And shame on all you DC reporters who were cheerleaders to the government's work to help Democrats.

24. In a letter to former Deputy General Counsel (and former top FBI lawyer) Jim Baker on Sep. 16, 2022, legal exec Stacia Cardille outlines results from her "soon to be weekly" meeting with DHS, DOJ, FBI, and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence.

Elections Work · Wednesday, September 16

Jim Baker · FBI · September 16, 2022 at 9:21 PM

Please see below for a summary of elections-related work I completed today, Wednesday, September 16.

(1) Government-Industry Sync. I participated in our monthly (soon to be weekly) 90-minute meeting with FBI, DOJ, DHS, ODNI, and industry peers on election threats. A few items to note:

- Foreign adversaries are amplifying themes being advanced by domestic actors to undermine the legitimacy of the election. USG specifically referenced vote by mail.
- I explicitly asked if there were any impediments with the ability of the government to share classified information or other relevant information with industry. FBI was adamant that no impediments to information sharing exist.
- I asked if JSQ was tracking foreign threats related to non-presidential races. Long silence. The government is not tracking foreign interference or threats related to down ballot races.
- DHS has created a chart of key dates in the election process at the state level. They are confirming information with the states this week, and should get us a summary chart of key dates next week.
- @Policy tweeted about the meeting without Legal review. As the only Twitter representative to speak, I raised my disappointment in the lack of my involvement directly to Policy Comms. It was a missed opportunity to document some key points of the meeting from our perspective.

(2) Project Heron. I met with Legal, Trust & Safety, and Public Policy stakeholders to discuss an intervention under consideration regarding labeling election results. I raised concerns about feasibility and I relayed first-hand experience with news media mistakes during a challenging primary season. I separately met with Sam and Matt to discuss worst-case scenario planning. I will meet with them again tomorrow on the project.

(3) Civic Integrity Labeling. Enforcement on our expanded Civic Integrity Policy begins tomorrow, Thursday, September 17. I provided feedback on a Scenario Planning Document that includes approving the language of the labels. I also reviewed a Moment that will link to Vote by Mail claims, consulted with outside counsel on the inclusion of one Tweet, and provided content-related advice to the Curation team.

(4) Account Security Upgrades. On Thursday, September 17, over 2,300 high-risk politician and journalist accounts will be prompted to upgrade their security settings. (See description from yesterday.) I reviewed and approved (1) the Comms plan and (2) the email to external stakeholders. I also told Public Policy of the 14 accounts that needed additional attention due to missing email addresses.

(5) Board Update. I worked closely with Matthew on additional edits to the Board narrative and the accompanying chart.

(6) Escalations. I handled the following escalations:

- Responded to DHS regarding information they provided on a Facebook operation — we found no analogous activity.
- Worked with Angela to try to get this terrible impersonation account spewing 9/11 conspiracy theories impersonating a DCCC staffer whose dad died in 9/11. Pending.
- Flagged a specific Tweet on Illinois use of modems to transmit election results in potential violation of the civic integrity policy (except they do use that tech in limited circumstances).
- Scheduling meeting with OH Secretary of State media director.
- Working with @gov to ensure we handle the verification of the OH Speaker of the House.
- Followup on Dubuque County verification request with LSA.
- Solicited additional information from Yoel on product functionality and limitations around retweeting labeled content so we can explain to DNC.
- Lincoln Project is not pleased their video was labeled under SAMM. Bridget is driving that interaction.
- Allowedlisted @DonWinslow and @Springsteen.

(7) Policy Comms. In addition to the Comms work on the security upgrades, I

When I see this kind of effort to shut down a speaker, I'm immediately curious as to why protestors find the person to be controversial. I've never heard of Stephen Davis but now I'll be researching on my own to determine for myself if I agree or disagree with what he is saying.

Radical Lefties shut down an event at @ucdavis where a black conservative was to speak.

These intolerants demand that all black people think alike.

The Chancellor of Davis @Chancellor May is missing in action. Are you a truly diverse campus, Chancellor?

When I see this kind of effort to shut down a speaker, I'm immediately curious as to why protestors find the person to be controversial. I've never heard of Stephen Davis but now I'll be researching on my own to determine for myself if I agree or disagree with what he is saying.

I recently toured a CA college campus with my son, and the tour guide (student) said that their campus was more than 51% white. He said that the school knew this was a problem, and that they were working on fixing it. Sounds racist to me.

When I see this kind of effort to shut down a speaker, I'm immediately curious as to why protestors find the person to be controversial. I've never heard of Stephen Davis but now I'll be researching on my own to determine for myself if I agree or disagree with what he is saying.

It's a good time for Christians - @albinkurti should not be asking the Serbian Patriarch to first make political statements before he gets to enter

So, the request for the visit of Patriarch Porfirije has not been rejected, as is being propagated by the Serbian Orthodox Church and the Serbian media, but it has been related to the distancing from the acts of violence and the above-mentioned actions.

Such an attitude of the institutions of Kosovo is determined by the fact that the Orthodox priest Predrag Popović, from the Church of Saint Bartholomew and Barnabas in Rakovica, near Belgrade, publicly admitted a few days ago that on Tuesday of last week he had illegally crossed the border of the Republic of Kosovo and using

The comments are appalling. Despite Ambassador Grenell's call to also remove the barricades, the hint of neutrality or fairness is attacked. That's what I hope we realize soon. Irrationaliose canons may help attain a short term goal, but in the long run they do more harm than good.

The exit of the Serbs from the institutions, and the barricades in the streets are practically an uprising of the Serbs in the north of Kosovo. They are uprisings against the constitutional order in Kosovo, and deep political rejection of the Republic of Kosovo.

Historic.

It took too long to reach this moment. But big congratulations to George. twitter.com/farnes/status...

Ooo! That's cool. I look forward to the day when being gay is normal and people like the president's wife and other spouses and politicians feel comfortable in coming out

Congratulations on the win!

IDGAF if he's gay/straight/bi/android etc. All I care about is that he's qualified for the job. Why should sexual preference/gender/race matter at all? Enough.

I hope this dispensable proclamation of sexual preference of the person running for public office will be gone and instead highlight the person's credential to hold that office

Did @TheJusticeDept send in an FBI SWAT team?

Byron York @ByronYork · 23h
Roughly 10¹ classified documents from Joe Biden's vice presidential days have been discovered in his office in a Washington think tank. AG Garland has assigned a US attorney to investigate. From @CBSNews: cbsnews.com/news/biden-cen.. eral Merrick Garland has assigned the U.S. attorney in Chicago to review classified documents from the Biden Center for Diplomacy and Global Engagement in Washington, two sources familiar with the inquiry told CBS News. The roughly 10 documents are from President Biden's vice presidential days, the sources said.

The material was identified by personal attorneys for Mr. Biden on Nov. 2, the day before President Joe Biden's inauguration, special counsel to the president confirmed. The documents were discovered by personal attorneys "were packing files housed in a locked closet to prepare to vacate of the Biden Center in Washington, D.C.," Sauber said in a statement to CBS News. The documents were found in a folder that was in a box with other unclassified papers, the sources said. The source did not say whether the classified documents contain nor their level of classification. A source familiar told CBS News the documents did not contain nuclear secrets.

You were right to say that the House should have Christopher Wray questioned, soon. Following a contentious contest for the speakership, this would bring together all factions. It would keep this matter on the front burner, before the press drops it. And position for the future.

The DC media are furious about Biden's classified documents issue.

Not because of national security concerns - but because it means he can't attack Trump over it.

@mviser, your partisanship is showing.

So, DOJ has known, and kept quiet about the first discovery of Biden Classified Information, since "November"

Which was about the time of the Trump Raid, wasn't it?

Is it possible the FBI raid was as political distraction to cover the Biden NatSec breaches?

. @SenSchumer completely controls the CNN morning crew, slinging mud at the GOP & pushes hard against @donlemon, Lemon quickly backs down.

@kaitlancollins stays quiet and then thanks Schumer for answering.

You made a fool of yourself and your blog and the media industry.

Your personal crusade against Adam Laxalt reflected in everything you said this cycle. Everything.

It's pathetic.

Sanction??

It's clear @katiehobbs withheld evidence to the Judge last week. She knew that Pinal County had a massive machine vote counting error - and didn't disclose it.

Did @marceelias know this? Sanction anyone who knew.

Biden's DoD is shamelessly using an anonymous source to say that Chinese balloons flew over the US under Trump - and the Trump team allowed it.

It is a lie. We never heard this - ever.

Congress should demand @SecDef tell the truth. Shame on @JakeSullivan46.

Now that Hunter has admitted it is his laptop - will @CNN ask the 50+ intel officials who spread Russian lies if they apologize for their election interference? @DanaBashCNN's husband was one of them.

The front page of the New York Post Metro Edition, dated Saturday, March 18, 2023. The headline reads "SPIES WHO LIE" in large, bold, white letters on a black background. Below the headline, a sub-headline states: "The intelligence 'experts' who falsely discredited Hunter Biden's laptop — and still won't say sorry". The page features a grid of 18 small portraits of intelligence officials, with names listed below each: Cynthia Strand, Nick Ledgett, Glenn Gerstel, Jeremy Bash, Michael Morell, Stephen Sick, Doug Wise, Michael Hayden, Nedra Baker, James Bruce, John Brennan, James Clapper, Leon Panetta, John McLaughlin, Chris Swane, Don Hepburn, David Carsons, Steven Hall, Ronald Marks, and Patty Bradweir. At the bottom left, a text box says: "CNN pundit James Clapper headed a letter by 51 former intelligence officials in October 2020 to cast doubt that Hunter Biden's laptop was 'Russian disinformation.' Even as the laptop has been confirmed again and again, none of them will apologize or admit they were wrong." At the bottom right, a red box says "PAGES 4-5". The top of the page shows the New York Post logo, the date, weather, and price ($2.00).

First, it is devastating and horrible that it happened. The US is sending help.

However this was the state of what's happening in the US and to say it's appalling that he didn't mention every situation in the world is ridiculous.

Stop complaining and do something helpful.

Biden aides say the intelligence community is willing to offer key Trump officials briefings on China's surveillance program. They say details were found after Trump left office about balloons that briefly flew over the US as well as areas in Europe and Asia.

@RichardGrene

Russia's annexation of Crimea was in 2014. Victoria Nuland was Assistant Secretary of State then and was largely silent over it. She's now Undersecretary of State & said this week about Crimea: "these are legitimate targets, Ukraine is hitting them and we are supporting that".

It amazes me how much the current adm.n has coughed up for what is, essentially a skirmish. Proxies, sure. But it's almost as if someone's itching for a full-blown multi-national conflict.

The reason Victoria Nuland was largely silent over the annexation might have to do with the fact that she was the main instigator of the murderous coup d'état in the weeks prior.

Kim Dotcom

@KimDotcom · Oct 11, 2022

Victoria Nuland was in charge of the US coup d'état in Ukraine. I think it's fair to say that her ideological work directly resulted in the deaths of thousands, a devastated EU economy and a significant risk of nuclear war. rumb.e.com/vwjr3v-2014-uk...

Biden admits say the intel community is willing to offer key Trump officials briefings on China's surveillance program. They say details were found after Trump left office about balloons that briefly flew over the US as well areas in Europe and Asia.

It took four days for Biden to shoot down a spy balloon over US so I

It took one day for him to blame his predecessor who hasn't been in office for over two years.

It's interesting because when they do this they are acknowledging spy balloons are a bad thing and it's why they need to spread it to the last administration. I guess the 'it's no big deal' thing didn't work out.

You shouldn't have believed their anonymous source tale in the first place

Biden a des say the intel community is willing to offer key Trump officials briefings on China's surveillance program. They say details were found after Trump left office about balloons that briefly flew over the US as well as areas in Europe and Asia.

Russia's annexation of Crimea was in 2014. Victoria Nuland was Assistant Secretary of State then and was largely silent over it. She's now Undersecretary of State & said this week about Crimea "these are legitimate targets, Ukraine is hitting them and we are supporting that"

There's nothing to negotiate. Ukraine has been invaded, and they have nothing to concede. Russia must be defeated. If someone broke into your home, vandalized it, raped your family, and wouldn't leave for a year, would you negotiate with them? Clearly the tGOP is pro Putin

Odd how someone like Richard Grenel can rail against "socialism" and then whine that government isn't coddling him on every little issue that touches his life. What about the pharmaceutical businesses that make the drugs? Don't we live in a capitalist society?

Russia's annexation of Crimea was in 2014. Victoria Nuland was Assistant Secretary of State then and was largely silent over it. She's now Undersecretary of State & said this week about Crimea "these are legitimate targets, Ukraine is hitting them and we are supporting that".

The reason Victoria Nuland was largely silent over the annexation might have to do with the fact that she was the main instigator of the murderous coup d'état in the weeks prior.

Kim Dotcom

@KimDotcom · Oct 11, 2022

Victoria Nuland was in charge of the US coup d'état in Ukraine. I think it's fair to say that her abolitionist work directly resulted in the deaths of thousands, a devastated EU economy and a significant risk of nuclear war. rumb.e.com/vwjp3v-2014-uk...

You know what would be historic? If the government would actually do the job it took an oath to do. For once. That would be historic. Today, we are seeing shades of 2020 all over again. Some things never change

Congratulations on the win!

IDGAF if he's gay/straight/bi/android etc.. All I care about is that he's qualified for the job. Why should sexual preference/gender/race matter at all? Enough.

I hope this dispensable proclamation of sexual preference of the person running for public office will be gone and instead highlight the person's credential to hold that office

Historic.

@Santos4Congress becomes the first openly gay Republican to win a congressional seat (all others came out after elected).

It took too long to reach this moment. But big congratulations to George.

Historic

@Santos4Congress becomes the first openly gay Republican to win a congressional seat (all others came out after elected).

It took too long to reach this moment. But big congratulations to George.

Historic

It took too long to reach this moment. But big congratulations to George.

You know what would be historic? If the government would actually do the job it took an oath to do. For once. That would be historic. Today, we are seeing shades of 2020 all over again. Some things never change.

IDGAF if he's gay/straight/bi/android etc. All I care about is that he's qualified for the job. Why should sexual preference/gender/race matter at all? Enough.

I hope this dispensable proclamation of sexual preference of the person running for public office will be gone and instead highlight the person's credential to hold that office.

Shutting down pipelines means you have to transport hazard chemicals by train and truck.

And that's way less safe! Pipelines are safer

 Secretary Pete Buttigieg  @SecretaryPete Feb 23

Happy to discuss timing of our Ohio visit but starting to think some in Washington want that to be the main focus so that there aren't too many questions about rail safety regulation, who is for and who is against.

We will hold the line on railroad safety and accountability.

It took too long to reach this moment. But big congratulations to George.

Emily, you lobbied everyone in America & in Congress to drop the Trump sanctions on Putin's pipeline. And your successful strategy encouraged Putin to start a war in Europe. A bloody, deadly war.

You should be apologizing to the American taxpayer not attacking US Senators.

Emily, you lobbied everyone in America & in Congress to drop the Trump sanctions on Putin’s pipeline. And your successful strategy encouraged Putin to start a war in Europe. A bloody, deadly war.

You should be apologizing to the American taxpayer not attacking US Senators.

Emily, you lobbied everyone in America & in Congress to drop the Trump sanctions on Putin's pipeline. And your successful strategy encouraged Putin to start a war in Europe. A bloody, deadly war.

You should be apologizing to the American taxpayer not attacking US Senators.

Emily, you lobbied everyone in America & in Congress to drop the Trump sanctions on Putin's pipeline. And your successful strategy encouraged Putin to start a war in Europe. A bloody, deadly war.

You should be apologizing to the American taxpayer not attacking US Senators.

Emily, you lobbied everyone in America & in Congress to drop the Trump sanctions on Putin's pipeline. And your successful strategy encouraged Putin to start a war in Europe. A bloody, deadly war.

You should be apologizing to the American taxpayer not attacking US Senators.

Manure? We're the largest weapons supplier of #Ukraine in the E.U. Our imports of Russian energy are down to zero. An Irreversible strategic shift, happening almost overnight.

We've committed an extra $100 billion for defense. We'll spend it. But you can't buy tanks at Costco. twitter.com/JDVance1/statu..

Schiff is upset that he is about to be dragged out of his hole and held up to the light

Well, I believe the Information should have been made public to all. As a Conservative had Schiff and Pelosi provided "all" video to CNN... who on the right would have trusted it? Release it all Fact check anyone that reports on it. @e onmusk

Schiffing his pants already ?

Where's the IG Atkinson transcript he held from us? Will they release that to the public?

Looking forward to Tucker presenting his take!

His place in history is already written His legacy, such that it is, is assigned to the shadows.

Sounds like Adam doesn't want America to see any of the footage that has not been edited and spun by the J 6 Committee

It's literally video footage no leaks no press briefings no lies. Adam Schiff truly hates it.

Yes he is!

Kevin McCarthy turned over Jan 6 videos to right wing propagandist Tucker Carlson

A man who spews Kremlin talking points. Suggests Jan 6 was a false flag. And spreads the Big Lie

Make no mistake This Isn't about transparency, it's about fueling dangerous conspiracy theories

So the DC media will just ignore this whopper of a lie?

@oeBiden said gay people were national security threats when he was a Senator. He also campaigned against gay marriage as VP.

@kapenn journalism is a joke. @maggieNYT @onkar

Biden. "I can remember exactly when my epiphany [on supporting gay marriage] was ... I was a senior in high school. And my dad was dropping me off and I remember I was about to get out of the car and I looked to my right and two well-dressed men in suits kissed each other."

@kapenn does the gay community a huge disservice when he sits there and allows the President to lie about his record of attacking gay people.

Giving aid and comfort to the re-writing of history is very troubling.

They were all critical of Trump.

Why not have at least 1 who would give a dissenting opinion? Just 1....?

You know, diversity and representation matters, right?

If you aren't watching this AG election lawsuit in Arizona you may be missing huge news....coming soon.

Hundreds of people voted and their vote wasn't counted - some in the AZ media have turned and see what happened

Kris Mayes may soon become "Acting Attorney General".

I can't even stomach listening to him. he makes me sick, he's such a twisted sick liar... obviously being told what to do and say or on the take... the sad thing is I loved him in Strangers with Candy... he was sooooo good!

Lol you said she simply "sparked an uproar". You failed to recognize the moment. You tried to cover for her because you were afraid of getting locked out by her. Everyone saw you.

Like you showed us with the AG debate, you can't ask Democrats questions.

There is one way to guarantee this happens. Republican majority state legislatures can appoint the 2024 for POTUS electors to the Republican primary winner right now. This is the only way to bypass another illegally run election.

There is one way to guarantee this happens. Republican majority state legislatures can appoint the 2024 for POTUS electors to the Republican primary winner right now. This is the only way to bypass another illegally run election.

There is one way to guarantee this happens. Republican majority state legislatures can appoint the 2024 for POTUS electors to the Republican primary winner right now. This is the only way to bypass another illegally run election.

There is one way to guarantee this happens. Republican majority state legislatures can appoint the 2024 for POTUS electors to the Republican primary winner r gnt now. This is the only way to bypass another illegally run election.

Something went wrong, but don't fret — it's not your fault.

I spoke with President Trump today - he is focused on protecting our country from this abuse.

I am so grateful for his leadership.

Neither is Biden. He needs constant handlers to tell him where to go. So there's no leadership.
Trump is running companies and a campaign. So if you're looking for leadership, Trump is light years ahead.

Trump's support is growing

People see that the Democrats are out of control and dangerous

I know people who didn't support Trump previously who now see what is happening to our country - and who will vote for him to clean up DC

Can you even explain what crime he is accused of and indicted for by Alvin Bragg?

CNN is trying to hide this story - because their colleague Jim Sciutto worked for Obama-Biden.

@JohnKingCNN & @DanaBashCNN also tried to cover up the Biden laptop story because Dana's now husband interfered in the 2020 election on behalf of Biden with a Russia hoax letter.

John King and Dana Bash are not hiding the story; they simply pointed out that it is not relevant, which, IMO, is true. If you or anyone else thinks otherwise, you are free to blast out the story on your media outlets or social media.
